CHEM& 121 - Intro to Chemistry	5

*May substitute BIOL& 160 for BIOL& 211

Applicant has or can obtain copies of their unofficial transcript(s) to begin the preliminary evaluation process, and they understand that they will need to provide official transcripts to Edmonds College within two weeks of admittance to the PN Program.

BIOL& 241 and BIOL& 242 must be taken at the same institution and in order - they cannot be completed in the same quarter.

4. ___ Applicant currently holds a valid NAC certificate or license in Washington State, and has at least 6 months of direct patient care experience. Please be prepared to submit a copy of your certificate or license with your Practical Nursing application for special consideration in the application process.

5. ___ Applicant has two people who can provide professional references and are willing to complete a Professional Recommendation Form that will be emailed out after the applicant submits their Practical Nursing program application:
 - Reference #1: _____

 - Reference #2: _____

6. ___ Applicant has completed the TEAS (Test of Essential Academic Skills) and is prepared to submit their scores for evaluation with their Practical Nursing Program application (<https://www.edmonds.edu/student-services/testing-center/tests/teas.html>). There is a recommended score of 'Proficient' or above ($\geq 59\%$), and a reading subscore that is $\geq 50\%$:
 - Total score: _____

 - Reading subscore: _____

7. ___ Applicant has the ability and is willing to travel 1-2 days a week to the Edmonds College campus and/or a clinical site in the greater north King and south Snohomish County areas.

Any interested applicants who meet all or most of the criteria in this checklist need to please contact Edmonds College Nursing Program Navigator, Julia Erickson, at julia.erickson@edmonds.edu. Be sure to include this completed checklist and copies of unofficial transcripts so she can help further verify your readiness.

Please be aware that this readiness checklist is not a substitute for completing the Fall 2024 Practical Nursing Application with Edmonds College. Instead, this is a tool that will also help you fill out your PN program application.
